Nevada Farm Bureau-Who We Are:

Nevada Farm Bureau is Nevada's largest agricultural organization. As a general farm organization, Nevada Farm Bureau is involved in the total scope of agriculturally-related issues and points of concern in our state.

Farm Bureau membership is an annual membership based on the organization's year of November 1 through October 31. All benefits and services are offered to Farm Bureau member families with a current membership required for participation with the services/benefits.

Nevada Farm Bureau is an advocacy organization, promoting the interests of Nevada farm and ranch families by seeking to implement Farm Bureau policy positions. Organizational policy is created from the grassroots - up, starting at the county Farm Bureau level and working its way to the state or national level. Implementation of Farm Bureau public policy is carried out through various forums, including regulatory and legislative bodies.
